

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A Silver party is the latest acquisition to political affairs in Alabama. In Athens, Livingston county, 400 Democrats, Republicans and Populists met and banded themselves together in favor of the free coinage of silver without any regard for parties ties, and to support for office only such men as favor their views.

Hector D. Lane, State commissioner of agriculture, a Democrat, withdrew from the convention when his motion to fight for free silver within Democratic party lines was lost. Committees were formed to organize clubs throughout the State. Free silver ideas are on a boom, and both the old party leaders appear to view the movement with alarm.

A child was killed by an electric car on Market street, San Francisco, Tuesday. It is said that it was caused by the absence of a guard on the car, and the manager of the system absolutely refuses to even talk about placing guards on the cars. This thing will continue until the people take the law in hand and punish the culprits that have caused six deaths in as many months.

Hetty Green is epigrammatic. She knows how to reach a point in a direct way. In a big law suit in which she is engaged, one of the lawyers remarked that "there was no use in saying anything more," whereupon Hetty said: "Let us have more money and less wind." Carry that sentiment to Congress, Hetty, just as soon as it sits again.

An item has been going the rounds of the press that a French Scientist has discovered that one part formic acid to five hundred parts water will accelerate the growth of plants to such an extent that a flower will grow from the seed in a day. Dr. Fox has been experimenting with the proposition and says that it is a rank humbug.

A few days ago a man in Toledo claimed to have received a message from the Almighty that the millennium was at hand and to prepare for it. The idea is absurd; the millennium could not come under the present Administration. The man was adjudged insane, presumably on this very ground.

For cold gall commend us to the New York Musical Echo. This sheet sends us about ten columns of puffs for Eastern dramatical combinations, and makes the following frigid proposition: "We will furnish you with these letters weekly, and take pay in advertising space." Not if we see you first.

H. P. Badgley of Stockton who claims to be the only eye witness to the killing of policeman Grant by actor Curtis, has written out a confession in which he states that Curtis really did the killing and that he was paid $3,000 to perjure himself in the case.

Several members of the theatrical company visited the Warm Springs and the Prison tracks yesterday, and expressed surprise that these two attractions of the city were not more widely known in California.

The Eureka correspondent of the APPEAL is designated as a "an unregenerated, cold-blooded rascal," by the White Pine News. Some more of his correspondence will be published shortly.

Mary Westfold, an aged lady, comes to the front and says she spanked Grover Cleveland way back in the thirties. She has nothing to brag of as it seems to have done little good.

The leaders of the two old parties seem to agree upon one thing—that is that the last bond deal buncoed the people out of about seven or eight million dollars.

The Mint inspectors find it is a condition not a theory that confronts them now.

Off for Salt Lake.

To night Hon. H. F. Bartine will leave for Salt Lake where he will take up his permanent residence. He has long been one of the foremost citizens of Carson, and a leading lawyer and politician of the State of Nevada, the sort of a man whose going from the State will be a dead loss to it. In his legal practice, his career as a politician and his record as a citizen, he has always been clean and upright, and leaves this city with the best wishes of a large circle of friends. In the growing town of Salt Lake he will find a broad field for his abilities as an attorney, and the APPEAL in common with the rest of the community wishes him unbounded success.

The Jewish Passover will be observed by all devout Hebrews in this city this week.
